Log Crawl Thru

Model View

Description

Enjoy the wonders of the forest floor as children climb over and through this realistically designed fallen log! This large, hand sculpted piece allows children to climb over or enter and exit easily, while the interior provides a comfortable place to gather with friends or to rest in this unique log hideaway. The Log Crawl Thru features a knothole on one side for visibility into and out of the tree tunnel. The log also bolts securely to its foundation making it a durable piece for any trail or play space.
